

RWI Reintroduces Ergonomic Intervention Service Line

For Immediate Release

Contact: Sharon Douglas CEO 619.954.7100

Escondido, CA (May 1, 2008) - RWI is pleased to announce the reintroduction of an Ergonomic service line for the Los Angeles and San Diego regions. Ergonomic Interventions are a valuable tool in the prevention / management of Cumulative Trauma and Occupational Disease.

RWI's professionally trained staff offer customized services to meet the needs of all work environments.

Program Features:

- ◆ Workstation Assessments — Individual or Comprehensive
- ◆ Ergonomic Worksite Analysis
- ◆ Workplace Design — New and Exciting Worksites
- ◆ Injury Prevention Education
- ◆ Modified Work Placement
- ◆ Return-to-Work Placement
- ◆ Accommodation Assessments
- ◆ Ergonomic Product Resource

RWI is a full service, integrated workers' compensation disability management organization, providing a host of substantial cost savings programs serving the needs of insurance carriers, third-party administrators, and public and private self-insured employers. Specialized services include Utilization Review, Medical Case Management, Return-to-Work Programs, Ergonomic Assessments, Outplacement Services, Interactive Accommodation Process Facilitation, and Job Function Analyses.

To refer a case for any of the above services, please visit our website at www.RehabWest.com or call our office at 800.889.1777.

RWI—Headquarters
215 S. Hickory St. Suite 220
Escondido CA 92025
800.889.1777