RWI, a provider of managed care services, has received Certification as a Women's Business Enterprise (WBE) by the Supplier Clearinghouse. The detailed Certification process confirms the business is at least 51% owned by women who also manage and control the primary day-to-day business operations.

RWI is 100% women owned by Carol Holub, Founder, CFO and Sharon Douglas, CEO. By including WBE firms in their procurement process, California businesses demonstrate their commitment to fostering their supplier diversity programs.

About RWI—The company's managed care services provided to employers, primarily in the workers' compensation arena include:

Utilization Review (UR)

Medical Bill Review

Nurse Case Management

Accommodation/Interactive Process "Meet and Confer" Services (for compliance with the Federal Americans' with Disabilities Act and the California Fair Employment & Housing Act)

Ergonomic Assessment & Vocational Evaluations

Technology Update:

RWI staff utilizes its proprietary web based software for all service lines. Physicians, nurses and consultants access any internet station for new case assignments or to manage their existing

Special points of interest:

- RWI WBE Certified by Supplier Clearinghouse
- RWI Provides Customized Managed Care Services
- Web Based Proprietary Software state of the art for case management and functionality
- RWI Tracks Cost Savings for Clients

Cost Savings Top $20 million for RWI Clients

In addition to case management functionality, RWI's software has the capability to track cost savings related to Utilization Review and Medical Bill Review. Cost savings are delineated by case, and reports are provided to clients on a monthly basis. The costs tracked are hard dollar numbers vs. soft savings using the Official Medical Fee Schedule and numerous other industry standard resources.

Cost savings to date for RWI clients currently exceeds $20 million dollars since inception of the program just 2 years ago.
